Join your neighbors to share ideas about the future of Boise's historic Reserve Street Armory, scheduled for auction this fall. The Urban Research and Design Center will present a series of conceptual designs based on suggestions from East End and Boise residents, facilitate discussion and invite your comments.

Proposals are organized into three basic categories:

- 1) Gardens, residential and commercial
- 2) School, residential and commercial
- 3) Mix of residential and commercial

Sample Suggestions:

- Year-round local producer's market
- Sustainability center
- Arts and crafts center
- Hi-tech business incubator
- Owner-occupied workforce housing
- Charter school and community space
